To You, he's the FAMILY BUTCHER—
To the Bank, he's BIG BUSINESS

DEPARTMENT of LABOUR
OCT 25 1938
RECEIVED
Labour Intelligence Br.

FOR EXAMPLE, of the 86,600 borrowers on our books in Canada at end of our 1937 business year, 61,728 had loans for $500 and less. In other words nearly 70 per cent of these clients were what might be termed "small" borrowers—owners of businesses, farmers, and ordinary men and women requiring money for legitimate personal needs.

* * * * *

Small loans are Big Business to this Bank, which desires at all times to meet the legitimate credit needs of business and private individuals. Your enquiries are invited.

In twelve months
10,500,000 individual deposits were accepted from customers and 40,000,000 cheques cashed, entered, checked and rechecked by The Royal Bank alone.

Vernon Directories Limited

Directory Publishers

29-31 Rebecca St. - Hamilton, Ont.

TO find a name you must first know how to spell it . . . .

"If you can't find a name at first, don't give up on the Directory. Remember that you may have the wrong spelling of the name if it is personal, or the wrong spelling and wrong style if it is a business name. Try to think of all similar names and variations, and turn to them before abandoning the search."

We would outline the following universal stumbling blocks in name reference, first touching those involving the matter of sound:

"The Mc and Mac problem. If you can't find it under one, be sure to try the other. Example—McLean and MacLean.

"The C and K problem. Remember that a very large number of names beginning with C and K sound identical, and are identical in spelling except for the initial letters. Examples—Cline and Kline; Craft and Kraft.

"The E and I problem. Similar to C and K. Always troublesome. Example—Erwin and Irwin.

"The G and J problem. Similar to C and K. Example—Girard and Jarrard.

"The SCH and SH problem. These two combinations form the beginning of a large group of names, mostly of Teutonic origin, and the sounds are identical. Examples—Schafer and Shafer.

"The D and T problem. Many times Mr. Downs gets on paper as Mr. Towns, and vice-versa. Look out for the D's and T's in initial letters, for lazy enunciation or misunderstanding may switch names from each of these groups into the wrong category.

"The F and S problem. Similar to D and T. Your Mr. Fisk may be Mr. Sisk, or the other way around. F often sounds very much like S, especially over the telephone.

"The M and N problem. These are always confusing wherever they may occur in names. As initial letters we have them in such as Morris and Norris, and in the middle we have them in such as Gammon and Gannon. Hard to distinguish. Once knew a man named Morris who said half his mail was addressed 'Norris.'

"The DOUBLE CONSONANT problem. In a large City Directory, Mr. Baron and Mr. Barron may be quite a distance apart. Baron and Barron sound identical. Check both spellings.

"The FINAL S problem. This is one of the most annoying things in Directory reference. The final s creeps on where it doesn't belong, or is omitted when it does belong. Nearly every name is susceptible of a final s. Remember that the Connor 'family' and the Connors 'family' are listed separately. Likewise Hill and Hills, and so on. Check both.

"With the foregoing examples we will leave letters and names that are similar in sound, and cite some that are confusing to the sight; that is, misinterpreted from long-hand writing.

"The A and O problem. A and O do not sound alike, but they often look alike in script. Transcribed names in which these letters appear may find their way into the Directory or into your files far from where they belong. Bales and Boles do not sound alike; neither do Aberg and Oberg. However, those A's an O's look alike. Don't surrender on Mr. Ward until you check Mr. Word.

"The N and U problem. In Directory enumeration we have marks to distinguish between these two letters, but you may have a name wrong in this respect. Check every n against u. Example—Lander and Lauder.

"The EI and IE problem. This is one of the knottiest combinations in family nomenclature. The pronunciations are different (ei is usually sounded 'i', while ie is 'e'), but carelessness in the old i-dotting often throws the name out of joint and into the wrong 'pew.' Examples—Geis and Gies; Weidler and Wiedler.

"The F and T problem. These two as initial letters of names should be mentioned because long-hand writers sometimes forget to cross that F. Thus Mr. Fuller becomes Mr. Tuller. Or inadvertently someone crosses the capital T. Then Mr. Tuller becomes Mr. Fuller. Both are disastrous if the Directory-user is not aware that such mistakes could happen.

"The L and S problem. Land and Sand do not sound alike, but a long-hand cap. L often looks like an S, and vice versa. Thus Mr. Land becomes Mr. Sand, or the other way around."
